From the President Desk

Dear Probians,

efore the commencement of our Breakfast Meeting last month, we paid our Homage to Probian Past President Late Sri T.T.Srinivasamurti who passed away on 1st July 2018.

At our request his daughter Mrs. Mathangi and a few of his close relations were good enough to join us in the meeting and they shared their thoughts with us. I thank them for their gesture. It was indeed a solemn moment for all of us.

As chance would have it, it was during that day's breakfast meeting, the much awaited Probus Anthem was played to the satisfaction of the audience. Who can forget that the Probus Anthem is the creation of respected Mrs. Kalpagam Srinivasamurti?

The lecture delivered by Shri Kizhambur Sankarasubramanian, Editor, 'Kalaimagal' and 'Manjari' was quite interesting and thought provoking. Quoting the shining examples of Mahathma Gandhi, Rajaji and Kamaraj, he explained how by dint of honesty and hard work even an elderly person can feel young and energetic. Shri Kizhambur's speech created positive vibrations all around. His speech on "முதுமையில் இளமை" was appreciated by one and Turning to the task before us, the Scholarship Disbursement Function slated for 30th and 31st August 2018 is fast approaching. I am alive to the fact that you have all started the work in full swing. Yet, we should not leave any stone unturned to complete the task perfectly. The success of the project lies not only in disbursing the scholarship but also in ensuring that no student, no parent and no teacher is put to any inconvenience.

As regards publication of Annual Book to be released on International Day of Elderly on 1st October 2018, while best efforts will be made by the President and Secretary with the support of Vice Presidents and other Probians, I earnestly request that more number of Probians should willingly come forward to contribute towards strip advertisements (3.5" x 1") at ₹ 1000/- each.

The above mentioned day of Elderly is a joyous occasion because, among other things, the club is honouring the Probians who complete 75 years of age, 80 years of age, and 90 years of age and also those who completed 50 years of married life (of course they should have completed one year of annual membership as of Oct. 1.)

Immediate P.P. Probian R.T. Namasivayam and

the undersigned attended the Installation ceremony of Rtn. Mr. Ranjit Pratap, President of Rotary Club of Madras on 10th July 2018.

Similarly the undersigned attended the installation ceremony of Ann. Anuradha Uberoi, President of the Inner wheel Club of Madras on 12th July 2018. During the function the President of Inner wheel Club of Madras handed over to the undersigned a cheque for ₹ 5000/- favouring Probus Club of Chennai. This represents the amount given to Probus Club by Inner wheel Club as annual contribution.

I take this opportunity to congratulate Prof. Dr.

Mrs. V. Balambal on her getting Achiever Award from Inner wheel Club of K.K.Nagar on 22nd July 2018. She is named "Pride of K.K.Nagar."

I also would like to congratulate Probian S.Subbu Sundaram on his achievement of doing the 'Kumbabishegam' of Sri Kasi Vishwanathar Temple in Varanasi after 238 years. With this happy note, I conclude.

With regards, Yours sincerely S.Gopalakrishnan President

THE THINNAI PALLIKOODAM

Schooling in the 1930s, which was documented by Ms.Bama Ranganathan appeared in Mylapore Times dated July 28, 2018.

Our Probus member, Probn. S. Ganesan who is a resident of R. K. Nagar in Mandavelipakkam, was interviewed in this regard. He is 85 years old, but his memory is still sharp. And having lived in Mylapore for ages, he has stories to tell. But it is his growing up days in this area that reflect a time and age that is special.

Here is his story - 'I was born on March 23, 1933. My family was a big one, a joint family. And we were not very well off.

'I remember starting school when I was 5 (my dad advanced my year of birth by 1 to get me to school early!). My first school was Raja Rajeshwari School on South Mada Street (it stood in the plot where Sangeetha Hotel now stands).

'It was a thinnai pallikkoodam. Do you know what a thinnai is?', he asks with a small smile.

'The first year students, all aged 5, would start their classes on the thinnai of this house/ school. We would all be seated in a line, and the only objects we carried to school were a slate and a balpam (chalk) in a yellow cloth bag'

The students would be taught English, Tamil and arithmetic. Only 3 subjects, after which they could return home. After the first year, they would move indoors to the small rooms which functioned as classrooms for the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th standard classes.

'We had to sit on backless benches, so we couldn't fall asleep or lounge in our seats. The master would also have a perambu, which he never hesitated to use: The admission fee to this school was one rupee and monthly fees, one rupee.

'Those were the times. You could get 1 veesai (1.5 litre) of gingelly oil or vegetables for ₹ 2 and a dozen hill bananas for 20 paise. You could get chillies for one dambdi (1/192 of a rupee). ₹ 100 per month was considered a very good pay'.

'In 1947-48, my family built a house off St. Mary's Road. The entire cost of the house, including construction was ₹ 9000'.

After completing his primary schooling at the Mada Street school, Ganesan moved to P. S. High School, Mylapore for his higher secondary education.

He has vivid memories of some of his teachers. 'I was taught mathematics by M. K. Rajagopala Sastry. He was a brilliant teacher and cultivated a love for the subject. There was also U. V. Ramachandran, my English teacher. He really brought Shakespeare to life'

Ganesan also recalls a classmate who was his inspiration.

'My family was not well off. On St. Mary's Road, there was a cobbler who used to sew chappals from tyres. This is what my dad would buy for us, ten paise a pair. I would wear this to school. Only when I went to college, did I buy a pair of shoes'.

'One of my school mates was the son of the general manager at Simpson & Co. He would arrive in a car, with neatly pressed clothes and shiny shoes. I was determined that one day I would also ride in a car.' Carnatic music was very popular, and film music was widely listened to'.

'R.R. Sabha was the leading one in Mylapore in my time. People loved attending kutcheris here and also at Sri Kapali Temple. People would even sit on the steps of the temple tank to listen to the music concerts organised at the temple after utsavams'.

'Kapali Talkies, where Kapali Towers now stands, was a film theater. For 2 annas you could get a floor ticket and 15 annas was the highest ticket price' 'Indian Bank, on North Mada Street was the only bank. I remember my father asking me to withdraw ₹ 50 from the bank, all in one rupee notes'. After his SSLC, Ganesan joined the Government Arts College to pursue a B.Sc. in mathematics.

A job with Hindustan Steel followed, after which Ganesan steadily climbed the corporate ladder to retire as a chief executive of a company in Chennai.
